

Inquiry Letter

Please indicate what the circumstances were for the credit inquiries on your credit report, and if you did/did not establish any new accounts as a result of them.

Please note that if you did establish a new account we will need you to provide complete account information to include: name and phone number of creditor, account number, account balance and monthly payments so we can update your credit report accordingly.

If you do not know what the credit inquiry was for or who pulled it then please specify this and that you did not establish any new accounts.
